

CARVER CROSS SECURITIES CORP.

Bruce Carver Jackson

Bruce Jackson is the President, Chief Executive Officer, and Founder of Carver Cross Securities Corp., a New York-based investment-banking firm. Carver Cross is a broker/dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the SIPC.

Mr. Jackson has more than thirty years of Wall Street experience. Prior to founding Carver Cross in 1993, Mr. Jackson spent twelve years in the Corporate Finance Department of Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. He began his career as executive assistant to Mr. Robert V. Roosa, Partner of Brown Brothers and former Under Secretary of the U.S. Treasury for Monetary Affairs.

Mr. Jackson is highly experienced in arranging and negotiating corporate sales, mergers, acquisitions, private financings, and joint ventures. He has assisted dozens of corporations and investors, both institutional and individual, from around the world, and has completed transactions valued at more than $4 billion. As a principal, he has raised, managed, and administered a $325 million private equity fund.

Mr. Jackson's significant international experience includes arranging cross-border private financings; structuring and negotiating complex, cross-border joint ventures; and negotiating and effecting cross-border mergers/acquisitions, including those involving the purchase or sale of U.S. companies by foreign corporations.

With a long-standing interest in and commitment to entrepreneurship, Mr. Jackson has founded and served on the boards of several not-for-profit organizations, including those focused on promoting entrepreneurs and entrepreneurship.

Mr. Jackson is a U.S. citizen and has lived overseas and traveled widely throughout Europe, South Asia, and East Asia. He speaks German.

Mr. Jackson earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Princeton University and a Master's at Johns Hopkins University's Paul Nitze School of Advanced International Studies. He also holds an Advanced Professional's Certificate in corporate finance from the New York University Graduate School of Business Administration. Mr. Jackson's FINRA credentials include Registered Representative (FINRA Series 7 & Series 63), General Securities Principal (FINRA Series 24), Foreign Currency Options (FINRA Series 15), and Investment Banking (FINRA Series 79).
